Foreword

As Ohio celebrates its one hundred and fiftieth birthday as a state, we, the seniors of Central have chosen as the theme of our annual, the Centripetal, the Religious aspect of Ohio's history and its subsequent affect on CCHS.

From the founding of the first Catholic Mission in Ohio in 1751 by the Jesuits Missionaries, the Church spread into every section of the state teaching, aiding, and converting thousands for the honor and glory of God. From Bardstown, Kentucky missionaries, who were sent into the Southwest corner of Ohio to what is now Cincinnati, began their heroic struggle to keep alive the faith in this section. Their followers carried on the task as they traveled into the northern part of the state.

Throughout the pages of our yearbook we will relate not only this year's important events in classes, organizations and sports, but we will also attempt to recall for our readers the beginning of Catholicism in this area of Ohio. By doing this we hope to reveal what the effect of the founding of Ohio, the establishment of Toledo and its first Catholic school had upon the present Central Catholic High School. For what our founding fathers of one hundred and fifty years ago did for the Catholic Students of Toledo today, Centralites are grateful.

Although "the first shrine of Catholicity within the limits of the present state of Ohio was erected at Oosandookee (Sandusky) about 1751, the actual history of Catholicity in Northern Ohio dates from the visit of Rev. Edward Fenwick O.P., who had been commissioned, in 1811 by the R. Rev. Benedict Flaget, the first bishop of Bardstown, Ky., to take charge in the state of Ohio. This territory which included not only the state of Ohio but also Michigan and the Northwest Territory was in the Kentucky
diocese.

Dedication

Twenty-six years spent in preparing the youth of Central to cope with the intricacies of mechanical drawing and physics is the record of Mr. Valentine C. Fischer, a member of Central's faculty since 1927.

Mr. Fischer, who was born on St. Valentine's Day, received his elementary education at SS. Peter and Paul.

A graduate of Waite High School, Mr. Fischer matriculated at the University of Detroit where he received his B.E.E. degree in 1927. In September of the same year, he began his teaching career at Central as an assistant to the late Rev. G. W. Dunne, in the mechanical drawing department.

While teaching, he continued his education by taking extension courses at Toledo University and Ohio State University. In 1931 he received his B.S.E. degree from Toledo Teachers' College.

During the summer months, he continued his role as teacher at Toledo Teachers' College, later named De Sales College.

Teaching, however, isn't his only pursuit. Mr. Fischer is a registered Ohio Engineer, a surveyor, a notary public, and the school's treasurer.

It is, therefore, with sincere appreciation to Mr. Valentine C. Fischer that we dedicate this, the 1953 edition of the Centripetal.

Wish Dunne it forged that name again. You're a swell guy with a great future. Lots of luck from Jack

Realizing his diocese was too large, Bishop
Flayet appealed to Rome for aid. In 1841
Pope Pius VIII created the See of Cincinnati and appointed Titus Fenwick its bishop. All Ohio, Michigan, and the Northwest Territory remained in the new see. In 1840, Bishop Purcell, who succeeded Bishop Fenwick, sent the R. Amadeus
Rappe, a Frenchman who had offered to come to America to serve the Cincinnati diocese, to Toledo, where he worked alone for five years.

In 1841 Fr. Rappe was made the permanent pastor in Toledo.

Father Ruppe established
ed, in 1841, St Francis de Sales parish, whose school became the nucleus of the present Central Catholic High School. During this period Catholicity was making wonderful strides in the Cincinnati Diocese <sup>and</sup> Bishop Suelli found his see too large for his personal attention. He petitioned Rome to relieve him of part of his jurisdiction. As a result the Diocese of Cleveland was erected in 1847 <sup>and</sup> Father Ruppe its missionary of the Maumee was appointed its first Bishop. Father was in the new Diocese.

CCHS . . . . . ————— It is impossible for us, the seniors, to fully comprehend the loving link which you — in your short years — have welded between your students and you.

But in the years to come, we will look back to you, our Alma Mater, with memories acquired during our four years, vivid in our minds. We can never forget the true Christian spirit you contain within your walls, a spirit we can apply to anything we undertake in later years.

To the valiant men and women who have given their lives that we might learn, we cannot adequately express our gratitude. They have given us a priceless gift, a Catholic education, which we will try not to lose.

We leave owing you, Central, an eternal debt of gratitude. We can, however, repay a small portion, by remaining true Centralites — practicing all we have learned in a way that you will be proud to have played a major part in our school life.

So to you, CCHS, the class of 1953 bids farewell. May God continually bless you and keep you so that others may receive your benefits as we have.

shoulders fell the burdens of organization, the expansion for higher learning within the diocese. The nucleus school (St. Francis de Sales) became Cathedral Chapel High, and its quarters was established in the C. & D. North Building

ENGLISH

English, which is a basic subject in our high school curriculum, deals with the skills of conversation and written composition through a mastery of grammar as well as an appreciation of literature.

In the freshman and sophomore years, students build a foundation of good English by a complete study of grammar, reading, and history of literary types. The junior specializes in American literature while continuing the study of grammar. A special project of the junior year is the research of Junior Essay.

Seniors may choose English literature or composition. The course in English literature provides a study of the major English authors. The junior and seniors study the newspaper and publish the school paper every two weeks. Seniors may also choose public speaking to give students confidence and poise in addressing a group.

One purpose of the English course is to give students better appreciation for good literature. Since English is an important subject for preparing for all future occupations, our curriculum has to have a study of English for every student.

SPANISH

One of the most popular courses in the school is Spanish, which is offered to the student in a two-year course.

In the first year of Spanish, the student learns the pronunciation, the regular use of the verb, the parts and structure of the Spanish tongue are stressed in preparation for the second-year study. In addition to the language, the customs, dress, art, and culture of Spain and Mexico make up the study for the second year.

The knowledge of Spanish is not only of great interest as well as instructive and a source of inspiration to the Spanish student. A more interesting interest will enable students to follow with more intelligence the intercourse of the United States with Spain and Mexico.

FRENCH

The two years of French open to Centre students are intended to humanize the teaching of French and to prepare all students to live more effectively in the world today. This year presents the language through the contributions made by France to the heritage of the modern world in such fields as literature, folklore, history, science, music, craft and the arts/craft.

Thus, the student finds his own language enriched. It is a presentation of a foreign people, language, and the study of another language made immediately functional.

By becoming acquainted with a few of the facts of French geography and history and by learning about the great men and women and the contributions they have made in government, science, art, music, and literature, the student will understand the role that France has played in the development of the western civilization that he has inherited.

GERMAN

German language is offered to students in a two-year course. In the first year the students learn the fundamentals of the language. In the second year the students are introduced to the language and the German people. Germany is a nation which has contributed greatly to the culture of the world. When studying the language the students learn of the geography, history, and literature of the German people. Germany is also known for its architecture, especially the cathedrals with their pointed steeples reaching toward heaven as if giving praise and thanks to God for His wonderful gifts to this land of beauty and enchantment.

LATIN

"The Language of the scholars" is an applicable title for the most extensively taught foreign language in Central, for Latin is the basis of practically fifty percent of the modern language language. It is a required course for doctors, lawyers, priests, and the like who must acquire a working knowledge.

In the first year vocabulary is begun and the basic constructions are taught. Most of the constructions together with translations of Caesar's Gallic Wars are the work of the second year student. The third year pupil masters all constructions and indulges in the orations of the famous orator Cicero. Having this good reservoir of knowledge at his disposal the senior Latin student is able to participate in conversational Latin, translate the complicated lines of Virgil's Aeneid, and work on the great encyclicals of the Popes.

HISTORY

History, the story of a man from the dawning of time to the present day, is introduced to the freshman through Ancient History. The sophomore year is occupied by Modern History which traces the history of Modern Europe. American History taken by all juniors, covers the earliest explorers of our country to the present day. The seniors must take Government which enumerates each phase of our American government; they may take sociology or economics.

History, the story of man's success and failure in life, proves to be a useful subject to all students.

BOYS' ART

Among the many departments at Central, Boys' Art Department has developed the fastest. The boys in this department are the first quoted by St. Thomas Aquinas: "Art is right reason in making things which need to be made." Under the inspiration of these words they develop skill in metal-craft, painting, wood-craft, modeling, leather-craft, and bookmaking.

The main project for this year's yearbook for the school boys, was to design the background for the Altar of St. George's Mission Church, Michigan.

GIRLS' ART DEPARTMENT

The members of the girls' art department bring out the true beauty of many sides of life. This is done through the use of paints, pencils, clay, leather, and cloth.

Art students voice their creativity by means of beautiful displays, various tracheas, clay models, posters, and work, and through the practical applications of make-up for plays, assemblies, and the operetta.

MATHEMATICS

The fields of mathematics at Central are wide and varied.

For the future scientists, engineers, and inventors of tomorrow there is a clear and thorough course of mathematics presented at Central. First there is elementary algebra and plane geometry, which is followed by advanced algebra, solid geometry, and trigonometry.

For the student interested in the business side of mathematics there are the courses in Business Arithmetic and General Mathematics.

DRAFTING

Preparing the engineer of tomorrow, is the aim of the mechanical drawing and surveying department.

In the freshman year the course comprises projection, geometry, surface development, and types of perspective.

Machine design, gearing, cam design and the use of the slide rule are taught to the sophomore. With this fundamental background the juniors undertake various mechanical projects.

The senior freshmen complete their high school training in drafting with a course in civil engineering.

GENERAL SCIENCE

A fundamental step in the study of natural science is offered in the General Science course.

General Science familiarizes the freshman with the God created nature of the air, water, sun, earth and other planets. Other subjects covered by this course are the natural resources infused in the earth, nature and the uses of electricity and magnetism, and a few points concerning the human body.

PHYSIOLOGY

The course in physiology is pointed out to those students who are setting their hopes on becoming either nurses, dieticians, home economists or any other branch of the biological fields. Since the study of physiology is a great asset in knowing means of good health, the course is wide open to all Centralite.

Through physiology the student is familiarized with the fundamentals of health as applied in daily life.

BIOLOGY

Biology, the science of life or living matter in all its forms and phases, is a subject of the student who has had little or no training in this absorbing subject.

Starting with the fundamental principles of life, the student advances step by step to the most complex and intricate forms of plants, animal, and human life. This is accomplished through serious study, observation, and thorough examinations.

The course aims to furnish the student with the study of life according to Christian principles.

PHYSICS

Physics, certainly, is the most basic and applicable science today, for no matter what the other science may be, the principles of Physics are utilized. Mechanics, heat, light, sound, electricity, and atomic physics are the major branches of this fundamental course. The physics student studies the natural laws of these divisions and twice weekly is able to apply his new-found knowledge through experiments in the laboratory. We shall now show you how to illustrate the various applications of physics in the world today.

CHEMISTRY

Chemistry is a science by which analysis ceaselessly unravels the secrets of nature. By synthesis it endeavors to improve upon nature. Because chemistry deals with the study of matter and the changes that matter undergoes, it is necessarily a very broad subject.

What high school students can hope to accomplish by studying the various laws and their application; the preparations, properties and uses of a few important substances; facility in solving a few types of chemical problems; is but to scratch the surface of the science. Chemists early realize the smallness of human accomplishments and the omnipotence of the Creator.

The students in the Home-making Classes are preparing for their vital role in life by studying the basic phases which are Food, Budgeting, Food and Nutrition, Clothing and related arts, Family Nursing, Work, participation and how to get along with people. The students also are trained to be intelligent citizens.

Homemakers with this training can't help but make this world a happier place in which to live.

THE COMMERCIAL DEPT

The main goal in the Commercial Department is the training of Central students to meet the requirements of the modern business offices, which are speed, accuracy and production.

Office Practice and Bookkeeping are the two mainstays of the department. The students learn the proper use of mail and business forms, the operation of business machines, and the proper method of filing. They also learn the correct way of working in a business office.

Commercial Geography, Civics and Commercial Law acquaint the student with the activities of the government and the world problems and the responsibilities of a citizen. They also learn the problems present in the world today.

The nurse, who is always prepared for acute emergencies, finds time to give a helping hand when we are in need of medical attention. As students we are assured of not only mental and spiritual but also the finest medical attention.

As a freshman each student receives a medical examination. All students are given Tuberculosis test. The nursing department also a great assistance to parents.

ATTENDANCE DEPT.

The attendance department is very thorough in checking the presence of all students in their classes. These records are kept for future references. This department is under the supervision of Sister Mary Raymond, O.S.I. and Sister Mary Loretta, O.S.I.

Bishop

TOLEDO
1921

Samuel Stritch (now Cardinal)

became Toledo's second bishop.

From the outset he manifested his interest in the expansion of facilities for higher learning within the diocese. His first year saw the establishment of Toledo Teachers' College and the founding of Mary Munse College. The broke ground for the new Central Catholic high school was under his direction and supervision it was completed. On April 14, 1929, when he dedicated it he fulfilled his promise "not to be satisfied until he had made Central Catholic High School not only the best but the finest school in the United States."

MIR. PATRICK McCARTHY, Head Football Coach and Athletic Director

Conspicuous for both years in the football field, Mr. McCarthy has become well known and well liked for his helpful and friendly personality. His long term coaching of many Central prospects. No matter how big or how small, there is something about "Pat" McCarthy which gives players great confidence in him.

Coming to Central in 1945, Mr. McCarthy coached the football squad to a 4-4 which losses with a 6 win 3 loss record. He was named to the coaching staff in 1946 and after his discharge and a year of coaching at St. Ambrose College, Davenport, Iowa, he returned to CCHS in 1947.

Since his return to the coaching staff, he has coached a record of 27 wins and 28 losses. Although his 1946 record boasts him over the 500 mark.

MIR. PAUL O'ROURKE, Freshman Coach

A graduate of Central's Class of '38 and of the 1942 Class of Deaton University, Mr. O'Rourke has recently completed his senior year in teaching football and basketball. Although his 4 win and 7 loss record was unimpressive, Mr. O'Rourke said he expected more from the team in the future.

MIR. LARRY BONDY, Varsity Backfield Coach

Associated with the football team for the eighth year, Mr. Bondy has gained a reputation as a fast moving backfield coach. His love for the game has been fully expressed in his coaching at DeSails College where he was an outstanding tailback, registering at the 145-pound mark.

MIR. DAN MODAK, Lightweight Coach

An athlete and a coach, Dan Modak, Ohio, Modak entered the U.S. Army in 1945. While in the service, Mr. Modak played with a football team. After returning as a coach for one year at St. Ambrose College, the University of Notre Dame, where he had taken coaching as a position, the South Bend, Ind. coach in 1952, he joined the Central staff, replacing Mr. Jim Kurszynke. ## FOOTBALL

Mr. Pat McCarty, the coach of the "Fighting Irish" can be proud of this year's team. With almost the entire team graduating last year, he had a real "work horse" of him. The papers even listed him as the "coach who is holding the next year." But knowing how his team pulled through in the past, he began the hard job of spring practice. The "bergs" was almost unbeatable as the "bergs" began their season. They won two out of their first four games a great credit to the team. Then last the first game 2-1 to 1 Abbey then went on to beat DeVilbess 14 to 6 then Scott 14 to 14 and Sprague 14 to 14. When the next opponent proved to be the "Lowa" tall. After crushing them 18 to 21 they lost the last two games 21 to 30 to Woodward and 10 to 7 to Detroit.

Many individual players, from this supposedly "green" team, gained recognition. Joe Amstutz made first string A-C tackle, Al Weckle was nominated first string A-C tackle, and Heintschel was named A-C second string guard. Dick Rahman and Bob George received honorable mention. The player who really received the awards was Ted Csizek. Ted, who was the only unanimous choice for All-City team, was voted captain of the All-City team, was elected most valuable player by his teammates, was chosen by the "Lowa" coaches as the most valuable player in the city, was nominated first string All-State tackle, and was named to the fullback position on the All-City team. Al Amstutz was voted most valuable substitute by his teammates.

Central can truly be proud of this team of 1953.

At the helm for the eighth year, Mr. Bondy has again shown that, defiant of all local protests, he is inclined to know something about the sport. Over his period of eight years which include the year of 1943 before he entered the Armed Service, Mr. Bondy has compiled the unsurpassable record of 171 wins and 31 losses, this season's total being his poorest, 14-7, giving him a percentage for the year of 66.7%, compared with the overall percentage of 84.65.

MIR. DAN MODAK

Lightweight Coach

Making his bid for popularity for the first time this year, Mr. Modak was unhappily set back as his lightweight basketball team dropped its first eleven straight. He managed a sigh of relief when they bounced back to win the final over Scott by a single point, 45-44. Mr. Modak still insists that they are a bunch of "Rum-Dums", but hopes for more support from the student body in the years to come. He mentioned that he had never seen a school where the student following was just for the varsity, and not for the frosh or junior varsity.

MIR. PAUL O'ROURKE

Freshman Coach

For the first time in two years, Mr. O'Rourke can not lay claim to a freshman basketball title, but no one can say that his team did not have all the make-up of a champion. They were on the winning side for eight games, while they lost only three, two of these by a mere point. They have shown themselves to be potential crown-holders for the future, and with the fine priming lesson from Mr. O'Rourke, they should develop into the champs of '56.

For years the residents of the Toledo area who represent rival schools have seen repeatedly. When told that Bondy took his first job at a school, we also what kind of a coach he is. When in September, 1953, the Cherry Street High School principal was looking over the prospects for a basketball team he saw that the majority of his material was really good. The entire starting team, which carried him to Columbus last spring had graduated, leaving behind only a few greenhorns who had not seen much action. The experts predicted last place, but the team was determined to succeed and had fighting hearts which let them to deserve the title "Fighting Fish."

In the regular season this gallant group won fourteen games while losing only five. To break that down farther they won eight of their first nine games to gain a share of the city crown. Going further, they entered the sectional tournament in which they advanced to the finals before meeting defeat at the hands of the Woodward Polk team.

This seemingly "green" material proved to the whole city that they were outstanding. They placed four members on the All-City team. The Toledo Blue placed Tom Schumaker on the second team and gave honorable mention to E. H. Przybylek and Harry Washington. On the other side of the fence the Toledo Green placed Tom Schumaker on the first team and awarded Tom Amstutz, Lee Hood and Harry Washington honorable mention.

BASEBALL TEAM

Although hampered by the cold and rainy weather and spring football practice, Mr. D. Modak and Mr. R. Donovan finally succeeded in picking a team to represent Central in the City's baseball program. The Celts lost all but four lettermen from last year's nine which captured the city-championship.

The pitching staff was paced by Pat Luchall, M. Alear, Bill Letty, Medhurst and Tom Hart. At third base, Jim Nopper, a senior finished his fourth year on Central's varsity. John Mackey, McManus, who acquired a habit of losing balls over the right field fence, was stationed at first base. Tom Gubowski, Frank Phelps, Phil Heintschel, and Bill Mullen roamed the outer green and red the Irish with their tricky bats. Jim Areddy and Chuck Farrell shared the catching duties.

This year's team consisted mostly of a clerical staff who will prove a formidable force in the next seasons. The Irish played each city school once and started their drive toward the State Championship Tuesday, April 28, with Pat McAlear spinning a one-hit 8-0 victory over Libbey.

GIRLS' SPORTS

The G A L leaders do all they can to make the Girls' Athletic League one of the most worthwhile of the school program.

Their leaders, however, need guiding which is supplied by Miss Joan Leonhardt,, girls' gym instructor, who is most capable of carrying out the task set before her.

The G A L works together as a group doing its best to attain a spirit of charity among its members.

Members of the G. A. L. are able to participate in an active program of bowling which continues through most of the year. Also high on the agenda are splash parties and picnics which are readily answered by a large turnout of girls.

Through the Girls' Athletic League, the girls gain a sense of co-operation since it is up to them to make this organization a success.

Getting along with others and learning new games is the purpose of the gym class. Activity plus marks this period as one of the enjoyable of the week, to which the girls look forward with earnestness. Basketball, volleyball, and softball are some of the sports played during the entire year.

STUDENT SPIRITUAL COUNCIL

The Student Spiritual Council—composed of the Liturgical Committee, the St. John Berchman Society, the Eucharistic Marian Committee, the St. Helena Chapel, and the Apostolic Committee—is one of the most important organization groups.

Its aim is the development of the spiritual life of the students. The committees comprising this council strive to use the religious and Christian principles in the everyday life of the student.

Eucharistic-Marian Committee

The Eucharistic Marian Committee is an organization showing the students the importance of devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and to Our Lady. For that purpose, it urges students to say the rosary every day, especially during the months of October and May. Another intention of the department is to stimulate other students, by their example, to receive daily Communion and make daily visits to the Chapel. Meetings are held every two weeks and at the end of the year, a chosen queen crowns the Blessed Virgin Mary at the May Convocation.

J. Flynn, L. Moier, R. Wietrowski, B. Sutton

D. Sodoski, M. E. Rudy, M. J. Sexton, C. Spain

Apostolic Committee

The Apostolic Committee endeavors to develop loyalty and devotion to the Church by making it their chief duty to encourage students to share in the primary work of the Apostles.

The committee consists of one representative from each conference room and other students who are interested in this type of work.

The Apostolic Committee promotes many activities: Christmas seal and card drive, mission drive, the Guard of Honor, and the Church Unity Octave.

R. Francis, T. Black, M. Veigel, J. Alst

St. John Berchman Society

Saint John Berchman Society is an organization that is entirely connected with the spiritual aspect of education at C.C.H.S. This organization has been at Central for seventeen years and serving Mass, promoting religious activities, and the May Convocation are among its various duties.

P. Black, K. Keller, B. Meehan, J. Alesi, B. Boaden

Literature Committee

The promotion of Christian reading, among Central students and their families, is the main objective of the Literature Committee. It has tried to instill in the student body good reading habits by means of many attractive posters and displays as shown during Book Week sponsored each year. A monthly list of excellent reading material is also compiled and distributed. The Literature Committee also sponsors the Faculty Tea and several assemblies.

J. Auth, J. Spenthoff, L. Alesi, J. Stelzer, J. Tillman

St. Hilda's Guild

Our Chapel is neatly cared for by the zealous members of the St. Hilda's Guild under the patronage of St. Hilda. The Guild consists of members of the girls' art classes. Because of their zeal the sacristy is always prepared for use; and in general, God's home at Central is kept in perfect condition. This organization is a branch of the Student Spiritual Council and it is indispensable.

J. Spenthoff, J. Klap, J. Hass, J. Halker, N. Roskuski, C. Mayer

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

1. To establish higher student ideals, to unite and foster a spirit of co-operation, to co-ordinate between students and faculty to provide means for the discussion, promotion and execution of school activities, and to better the conditions of the student body are the objectives of the Student Council, the organization which affords the opportunity of student participation in the school's government.

2. The group is composed of representatives from each grade and class, the class officers are the presidents of the different organizations.

3. The annual activities sponsored are the Junior-Senior Prom, Color Day, the Talent Assembly, the Tag Day, school fairs, the Fall Picnic, Community Chest, Catholic Church Drive and the annual Tax Stamp drives.

4. Realization of the Student Council's aims, such as, Week-Long sized classes, discussion of an Anti-Miscegenation Bill, etc., etc., were made possible by the Faculty and Student Council working in co-operation. Important innovations undertaken by this group during the year.

The Centripetal is the work of a group of seniors who wish to capture in print the high school as lived at CCHS.

The same spirit, which enabled the class of '53 to make the yearbook drive a financial success, motivated the managers staff during the long hours of proof reading, correcting and editing the copy. With untiring effort they have endeavored to present a yearbook, which not only will keep alive the happy memories of the four years at Central but also will be a fitting commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the State of Ohio.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of America, an active group at Central, by its interest and vigor in carrying out its purposes has made this club a progressive and successful one.

The purpose of this organization is three-fold: explanatory, provocative, and character forming. Its establishment is also three-fold (1) to aid young people in getting the facts and opportunities of the teaching profession in their locale, their state and their country; (2) to study the lives of great teachers in order that they may be an inspiration to them and to develop student leadership; (3) and to cultivate many good character qualities essential to a good teacher.

Y. C. S.

To help students fulfill as completely as possible, the demands of their "Student Vocation," and to help solve the problems that are met in student life, is the service that the Y.C.S. aims to provide for their fellow students.

Besides attempting to assist students in their individual needs, the Central Y.C.S. this year undertook to provide group service in projects, such as "Study Week" on the fifth annual "Career Day".

TORCH NIGHT

"Torch Night", now an annual affair, is an evening designated as senior-junior investiture night. At the ceremony seniors place in the hands of the juniors a light symbolic of the authority of the seniors of the school. At this time the seniors challenge the juniors to top their record in all activities. The night is climaxed with entertainment and dancing.

GRADUATION

And if someone does learn to love life, entering the service class, look at the future with hearts filled both joy and sorrow. Just because of the knowing they possess, and the price they feel for a job well done. In the midst of this joy, however, there is a touch of sorrow, the sorrow of persons who part with a great room. Realizing this the generating seniors step to the front and with a few other students make it as well a better place to which to live.

In Memoriam

"Charity is patient, is kind." These words, taken from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Corinthians, describe the life of the Very Rev. R. G. Kirsch, third principal of Central Catholic High.

Very Rev. R. G. Kirsch

First as a teacher, then as principal, Father gave seventeen years of his priestly life to this school. The building campaign for a new Central was started and the school was completed under his supervision.

Father Kirsch died December 6, 1952 in the rectory of St. Wendelin's Parish, where he was pastor.

Death claimed the Rev. G. W. E. Dunne, former faculty member, January 29, 1953.

For twenty-six years Father guided the boys of Central's Mechanical Art Department, not only in the mechanical field but also in the spiritual way of life.

"Poet, builder of character and lover of boys, in whom he instills the lofty ideals of strong courageous Christian men," the dedication words of the Centripetal staff of 1931, well depict the character and work of Father Dunne who spent most of his priestly life teaching the youth of Central.
